

2019 Australian Highlands Wine Show

1. REGULATIONS

- a) All classes are open to wines made by Australian wine producers with a minimum of 85% of the entered wine originating from a vineyard that has some, or all, of the vineyard at or more than 500 metres above sea level.
- b) A wine producer means any person owning or leasing a vineyard, and/or manufacturing wine, or from grapes purchased for the purpose of winemaking.
- c) All exhibits must conform to the respective Acts of the States and Commonwealth of Australia which govern the production and sale of Australian Wine and Brandy, including but not limited to; the Custom and Excise Act, Health Act, Spirit Act, the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation Export Regulations Amendments 1993, the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation Amendments Act 1993 and the regulations relevant to such Acts.
- d) All exhibits must be made wholly in Australia utilising only Australian grapes.
- e) Stewards & judges reserve the right to reallocate wines to correct classes if entered into an incorrect or inappropriate class.
- f) The Australian Highlands Wine Show reserves the right to accept or reject any entry, to question exhibitors on details of entries and to change entries to a more appropriate class.
- g) In all cases, the wine in stock, as declared on the entry form, may be inspected and checked by representatives or nominees of the association to verify origin and quantity held.
- h) The wine show committee may also purchase at random samples from licensed retail outlets for comparison with exhibits submitted for judging.
- i) The Chairman of Judges will have the final arbitration power.
- j) No protest will be considered unless made within 7 days of the announcement of the awards. However, it must be noted that the decision of the judges is final and no discussion will be entered into, but the reason for the decision will be given.
- k) Any exhibitor breaking any regulation may be disqualified from this and any future Australian Highlands Wine Show.
- l) No entry will be received from any exhibitor disqualified by this or any other similar wine show during the period of such disqualification. Should an entry be accepted, it will, when discovered, be deemed void and the entry fee and the exhibit will be forfeited.
- m) All entrants agree to supply, on request by the Australian Highlands Wine Show, up to 60 bottles at no greater than $10.00 per bottle (inc taxes and freight), of any wine entered for promotional purposes.
