Organised and managed by Southern Highlands Food and Wine Association Inc.
www.southernhighlandsfoodandwine.com.au

2017 Wineshow

The Australian Highlands Wine Show is open to all Australian wines made from grapes sourced from vineyards above 500 metres in altitude. Over 150 entries were received with particular comments from judges highlighting the exceptional standard of wines entered this year.

The 2017 show included wines from the regions of Southern Highlands NSW, Orange NSW, Mudgee NSW, New England NSW, Tumbarumba NSW, Hilltops NSW, Canberra District NSW, Adelaide Hills SA, Clare Valley SA and Granite Belt QLD

Judges

The 2017 wine show featured an outstanding judging panel chaired by Toni Paterson MW with Adam Walls of Wine Selectors and Andy Chen of Sydney WSET education and China, who were joined by associate judge David O'Brien of Manning Street Cellars. Our eternal thanks go out to the judging panel and stewards who continue to donate their time and expertise to help assess and improve the quality of Australian Highlands wines.

CLASS 01

CHARDONNAY CURRENT VINTAGES

Judges: Toni Patterson, Andy Chen, Adam Walls, David O'Brien

Entered: 12

Class comments: A range of styles were presented. Most wines were well made, though a number of wines exhibited underripe characters, So if attempting to make a restrained style, still try to achieve ripeness otherwise underripe characters will poke through. The hallmark of all the top wines was complexity.
